

BECOME A YOUTH AMBASSADOR

Texas Council for Developmental Disabilities and Texas Advocates are seeking four youths with developmental disabilities to serve as Youth Ambassadors for our program with The Center of Youth Voices, Youth Choices. Join us to spread awareness about supported decision-making and alternatives to guardianship.

LEARN

Attend virtual trainings on topics such as leadership, self-advocacy, and alternatives to guardianship.

SHARE

Create action plans to share what you have learned with your community. You'll have team members to support you along the way.

REPORT

Document your experiences and what you have learned by creating a report about being a Youth Ambassador.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

To be eligible, candidates must be between the ages of 14 and 26, identify as a person with an intellectual or developmental disability, have an interest in learning more about alternatives to guardianship, and live in Texas.

COMPENSATION

Youth Ambassadors will complete a 13-week virtual training and receive a stipend of $750 for their participation.

APPLY NOW

If you or someone you know is interested in serving as a Youth Ambassador for our Texas team, apply online today at bit.ly/TCDDYouthAmbassador.
